HARPER'S WEEKLY.

ILLUSTRATED.

NOTICES OF THE PRESS.

The Weekly is the ablest and most powerful illustrated periodical published in this country. Its editorials are scholarly and convincing, and carry much weight.
Its illustrations of current events are full and fresh, and are prepared by our best artists. With a circulation of 150,000, the Weekly is read at least by half a million persons, and its influence as an organ of opinion is simply tremendous. The Weekly maintains a positive position, and expresses decided views on political and social problems.—Louisville Courier-Journal.
Its articles are models of high-toned discussion, and its pictorial illustrations are often corroborative arguments of no small force.—N. Y. Examiner and Chronicle.
Its papers upon existing questions and its inimitable cartoons help to mould the sentiments of the country.—Pittsburg Commercial.

PARAGRAPHS.

—A mastodon skeleton weighing 1,600 pounds, the largest ever found, has been sent to Yale College from Orisville, in Orange county, N. Y., where it was dug up two years ago.

—Julian Hawthorne, in his "Saxon Studies," says: "To be a thorough German cook requires only a callous conscience, a cold heart, a confused head, coarse hands, and plenty of grease."

—"The Emperors of Russia and Germany seem to understand each other thoroughly." This is very significant. It shows that the tutors who instructed them in the languages didn't fool away any time.

—Dr. Gross advocates a return to phle-botomy. Those who have paid up their doctors' bills, are inclined to think that the professor has never quite given up the process of bleeding.—Milwaukee Sentinel.

—The Rev. J. L. Howell, a Presbyterian pastor in Minneapolis, Minn., hung himself a few days ago. Within a year his wife had been found dead in her bed, one daughter had been drowned, and another had been thrown from a horse and killed. These afflictions had greatly depressed him.

—Mr. Gladstone has searched out the things which Pope Pius has called the Italian Government and its adherents.
The list is as follows: Wolves, perfidious Pharisees, thieves, Jacobins, liars, hypocrites, dropical, impious, children of Satan, children of sin, children of perdition, satellites of Satan in human flesh, monsters of hell, demons incarnate, stinking corpses, men issued from the pits of hell, teachers of iniquity, and the issue of damnation.

Hayti.

Hayti is the country of revolutions.
Every few months some ambitious chief feels that he ought to be at the head of affairs, and proceeds to overturn the existing Government. Since the days of Fouquet Pouvarture she has known little peace or prosperity. Occupying the western portion of the second island in size and beauty of the West Indies, and having a republican form of government, with a good climate and a rich soil, she has every element necessary to become a prosperous and happy country, except a steady, thrifty people.

The latest advices from that Republic give an account of another outbreak. It occurred on the 1st of May, on the occasion of the annual agricultural festival which is celebrated throughout Hayti.
It appears that Monplaisir Pierre wanted to be President, and organized a conspiracy to assassinate the rightful President, Dominique, while he was in church.

General Bryce and General Canat were the leaders in the movement. The President Dominique learned of the plot before it had fully ripened, and sent troops to arrest the conspirators. They surrounded the residence of General Bryce first, who refused to surrender and killed four Haytian officers before he was mortally wounded. He then crept into the house of the British Consul and died.

A servant of the Consul was killed by a shot intended for Bryce. The troops next entered the residence of General wounded, and then shot himself. General Canat's troops deserted him, and he escaped into the residence of the American Minister, where he was protected by the American flag.

Accounts of confusion and anarchy reigned.
Arrests were being made throughout the Republic. Houses and stores were being plundered and burned. This is the condition of Hayti to-day, and this has been her condition, practically, since 1793. It would seem that humanity, if nothing else, would demand that some strong power should throw around her the protection of a permanent government.

Thanks "From the Depths of the Heart."

DR. R. V. PIERCE, Buffalo, N. Y.

Dear Sir—Your medicine, Golden Medical Discovery, Dr. Sage's Catarrh Remedy, have proved of the greatest service to me.
Six months ago, no one thought that I could possibly live long. I had a complication of diseases—scrophulous, manifesting itself in great pains and great debility. On my last attack made such sore that I could not have my hair combed without causing me much suffering; also causing swollen glands, tonsils enlarged, enlarged or thick neck, and large and numerous boils. I also suffered from a terrible Chronic Catarrh, and in fact I was so diseased that life was a burden to me. I had tried many doctors, but all that made such sore that I could not have
my hair combed without causing me much

large and numerous boils. I also suffered
